Handling of Equity Options

The Company hereby announces that on March 30, 2007, the Tokyo Stock Exchange, Inc (the "TSE") publicly announced that it decided to de-list the equity options of the Company's shares which are listed on TSE and that it applied for approval of de-listing of the equity options from the Commissioner of the Financial Service Agency. The delisting details are described further below.

To clarify however, investors may still trade shares of the Company as before because TSE's decision to de-list the equity options does not influence any transaction of Company's shares or their listings.

Particular

1. Reason for De-listing of the Company's Equity Options:
TSE applied Rule 43, Section 2 of the Special Regulations of Business Regulations, Margin/Loan Trading Regulations and Brokerage Agreement Standards Concerning Equity Options Transaction because it found that there were no equity option transactions for one year (from March 31, 2006 to March 31, 2007).
2. Delisting Date (schedule):
TSE will de-list the equity options on April 13, 2007, subject to the Commissioner of the Financial Service Agency's approval.
