The contents of the matters required to be disclosed by the "Corporate Governance Code" are as follows.

(Principles 1-4) Fundamental Policy on Cross-Shareholdings and Guidelines for Securing Appropriate Measures to Exercise Voting Rights

Although the Company's principle is not to hold shares in cross-shareholdings, in cases where it is recognized that cross-shareholding is essential for sustainable growth of the Group or improvement of the corporate value, such as for reinforcement of alliances in order to maintain business transactions and to expand our business, and for smooth fund raising, the Company may hold shares in cross-shareholdings.

The Company reviews all of our invested shares once a year and closely examines whether the benefit of holding shares, risk of stock price fluctuation and credit risk, etc. of the issuing companies are worth the capital cost, and comprehensively determine whether holding such shares are appropriate or not. If the Company determines that the necessity of holding certain shares has become lower, the Company implements disposal of such shares as appropriate having regard to the stock price and market trends, etc. However, there are cases where even if the significance of holding certain shares is recognized, disposal of such shares may be implemented upon agreement with an issuing company.

The total market value of cross-shareholdings of the Company as of the end of the fiscal year ended March 31, 2024 is 23.8 billion yen and the Company recognizes that the proportion of the cross-shareholdings is not high because it is approximately 2.5 percent of the consolidated total assets of the Company. However, the Company will continue to periodically review all of our invested shares and proceed with the reduction.

When exercising the voting rights of cross-shareholding, the Company closely examines the respective proposed agendas and respects proposals of such trading partners so long as they do not disregard the interests of shareholders. However, if any misconduct (including misconduct by any member of the management) or any antisocial behavior occurs at such trading partners, we exercise our voting rights so that such exercises contribute to the improvement of the companies' corporate governance.

(Principles 1-7) Framework in Connection with Engaging in Transactions between Related Parties

- 1) When we conduct competitive transactions or conflicting interest transactions, as stipulated by laws, with the Corporate Officers, we conduct such transactions only upon approval of the Board of Directors and report the result to the Board of Directors.
- 2) We inspect whether there have been any transactions between us and major shareholders, the Directors or Executive Officers and their family members, and the details of such transactions, if any, once a year. In
